WELCOME TO YOUR PROPHETIC JOURNAL

“Call to Me, and I will answer you, and tell you great and hidden things that you have not known.” — Jeremiah 33:3

This journal is a sacred space to document, study, and respond to what God is showing you. He speaks through dreams, visions, impressions, scripture, and quiet whispers. Your role is to steward that revelation through prayer, discernment, and obedience.

Whether revelation comes suddenly or unfolds over time, this journal helps you track and process it in a meaningful way.

THE REVELATION PROCESS

This journal follows a 4-step rhythm to help you process and apply what you receive from God:

Pray (Receive)

Sit before the Lord with expectation. Ask Him to speak—and be ready to listen. Revelation may come through dreams, scripture, impressions, visions, or quiet moments in prayer.

Brainstorm (Research)

Write your initial thoughts, questions, and keywords. Then begin studying with spiritual curiosity and a heart to understand.

Here's how to go deeper:

- Search key words in scripture using a concordance, a topical Bible, or even Google (for example: “glory in the Bible”).
- Start with the English definition. This helps you understand the natural meaning before diving deeper.
- Look up the biblical meaning. What does this word mean in the Bible's overall context?
- Study the Hebrew or Greek root words. Use resources like Strong's Concordance, Bible Hub, or Blue Letter Bible to explore the original language.
- Pay attention to context. Who was the scripture written to? What was happening at the time? Why was it said?
- CONTEXT MATTERS. Don't isolate one verse. God may be leading you to read the surrounding chapter, multiple chapters, the entire book, or other related passages. Let scripture confirm scripture.

Let the Word interpret the word. The more you seek, the more He reveals.

Interpret (Understand the Meaning)

Ask the Holy Spirit to help you understand the message:

- What is God saying to me personally?
- How does this apply to my life right now—or in the future?
- Is this a promise, a warning, a correction, or a preparation word?

Apply (Act on It)

How will you respond?

- Is God calling you to pray, repent, speak, obey, or wait?
- What needs to shift in your thinking, schedule, priorities, or relationships?
- What fruit or change do you expect to see if you walk this word out?

Revelation is meant to produce movement. Obedience is how you partner with what He's saying.

HOW GOD MAY SPEAK TO YOU

God speaks in many ways. Pay attention to how you receive revelation. These are four common prophetic receptions:

Feelings (Feeler):

A sudden burden, peace, conviction, or emotional clarity. You feel God's heart on a matter.

Inner Knowing (Knower):

You simply know something beyond your natural reasoning. It's a settled inner truth or awareness.

Visual (Seer):

You receive dreams, flashes of imagery, symbolic visions, or mental pictures.

HOW GOD MAY SPEAK TO YOU

Auditory (Hearer):

You hear a word, phrase, lyric, or scripture in your spirit. It may sound like your own thoughts, but it carries divine clarity and weight. You may receive in more than one way. You may receive in more than one way. Track what's most consistent for you.

CONVERSATIONAL JOURNALING

This journal is more than a notebook. It's a place of ongoing dialogue with God. As you write:

- Don't just document—pause and listen.
- God may interrupt your journaling with a thought, image, or phrase that doesn't feel like your own.
- He may speak mid-sentence or after a pause. Stay sensitive and keep writing.
- Record everything, including what you believe He says back to you. Use quotation marks or notations if helpful, but the main thing is to capture the full conversation. This is not just a record—it's a written altar.

Stewarding the Word

- Always date your entries. God works in seasons.
- Don't wait to figure it out. Write first, understand later.
- Use the Word of God as your foundation.
- Revisit previous entries—revelation often unfolds over time.

Let this journal become a testimony of what God has spoken—and what you've become by obeying it.
